Waiting forever?

Hundreds of plastic bags filled with waste have been lying by the national highway near Sahyadri Engineering College for more than 15 days now. The waste is reportedly said to be the leftover of a grand marriage in which Chief Minister Siddaramaiah had taken part. Street dogs have already started opening a couple of plastic bags, creating a chaos in the vicinity. If the authorities concerned do not wake up at the earliest, the beautiful highway may turn up to be a dumpyard. DH PHOTO/ GOVINDARAJ JAVALI
