MIT wins TCS TechBytes regional finals

MANGALURU, DHNS: Manipal Institute of Technology (MIT) students won the regional finals of TCS TechBytes 2017 held at Sahyadri College of Engineering in the city recently.

The IT quiz was organised by Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), a leading IT services firm, and the Board for IT Education Standards (BITES), Government of Karnataka.

After an intense battle of minds among budding engineers, Anurag Roy and Kunal Joshi from MIT, Manipal, emerged winners followed by Akarsh K Sathish and Jaitirth Jacob from NITK Surathkal as runners-up.

The winners took home an educational scholarship of Rs 12,000, a trophy and prizes from TCS. The runners-up received an educational scholarship of Rs 8,000 and prizes.

Dr Umesh Bhushi, Principal Sahyadri College of Engineering and Management, distributed the prizes. The winners will participate in the state finals in Bengaluru on March 21.

Anurag Roy and Kunal Joshi won the regional finals of TCS TechBytes 2017.
