Eiffel Tower vs Taj Mahal?

"There is the Eiffel Tower in Paris. Perhaps it is nothing compared to Taj Mahal. 80 million people come there. This is eight times more than what we get"

Mock seat allotment list for MBBS, BDS out

Option entry for engg course begins

BENGALURU: The Karnataka Examinations Authority (KEA) on Wednesday announced the mock allotment of seats for the medical and dental courses for the academic year 2018-19.

The students, who are done with the option entry till Tuesday evening, have got a clear overview of the seat availability in medical and dental courses in various colleges across the state.

"The mock list will give the rough picture for the aspirants to know the availability of seats in different colleges based on their rankings. Again they are allowed to re-enter their options, make changes, re-arrange their priorities till 5:30 pm on Thursday. This mock list is not valid for the admissions," a KEA official told DH.

Karnataka Examinations Authority is expected to release the first list of seat allotments for the medical and dental courses on Friday at 5:30 pm.

A day after releasing the seat matrix for the engineering courses, KEA has enabled the link for the engineering aspirants to make the option entry.

"Since the number of engineering aspirants is more, when compared to medical and dental courses, we have given some more time for the option entry. We will follow the same procedure for engineering too," the official added.

The option entry is open from Wednesday evening. The mock list for engineering is expected to be released over the weekend.
