

Sahyadri College selected as regional centre for Statistics Olympiad

Mangaluru: Sahyadri College of Engineering & Management here has been selected as regional examination centre for Statistics Olympiad. The 12th Statistics Olympiad 2020, a talent search competition in Statistics with an aptitude for numbers and data handling for students of High Schools and Colleges on January 19, 2020, between 10 am and 1 pm in Hyderabad, Vijayawada, Visakhapatnam, Tirupathi, Guntur, Kurnool, Kakinada, Warangal, Khammam, Mumbai, Aurangabad, Nagpur, Dlehi, Pune, Chennai, Bangalore, Mangalore and Sri Lanka Centres. Applicant must have secured grade A or 70% marks in Mathematics in the previous academic year (2018-19) in any board examination. The competition is conducted at two Levels: a) Junior Level: Students who are presently studying Class IX and X (2019-20). b) Senior Level: Students who are presently studying Class XI, XII and Degree or Engineering 1st year (2019-20). Last date for registration is December 31. For more details, visit: <http://www.crraoaimscs.org/> At each level, top 3 students will be given C R Rao and C Bhargavi Rao prizes of ₹15,000, ₹10,000 and ₹7,000 on June 29 during 12th Statistics Day celebrations at CR Rao AIMSCS, Hyderabad. Also, top performers upto 15 students in each level will be awarded merit certificates during the same function. Last year, from Mangaluru region, Elma Ezam Thomas from St Aloysius college had secured All India 6th rank. For more information, contact Deepthi N T, Assistant professor, Dept of Mathematics on 93426 58729. ENS